YOUTH IN SEARCH OF A CAUSE!

All over the world, young people are desperately trying to find themselves. From the little country town in Iowa to the swinging metropolis of New York; they are endeavoring to find that one thing that they will devote their lives. Experimentation, see for yourself, try anything once, are their daily modes of expression. Inner city work, charity work, Peace Corps, LSD trips, hippie land, Black nationalism, civil rights causes, are attracting YOUTH IN SEARCH OF A CAUSE. Many young people are going through mental anguish, psychological maladjustment, and moral frustration trying to find who they are and what direction shall their lives be cast. In this tedious process, excruciating journey to manhood, many youth are scared for life, some committed to mental institutions and prisons, and others are killed in the springtime of life. My brother, the God that Abraham served, Moses revered, Peter preached for and Paul died for— wants every youth biblically in-tuned, morally directed, and intellectually rational.

It is my cemented conviction that the contemporary church must grapple audaciously with the numerous problems facing our youth. We must not only talk about yesterday's problems, but we must courageously confront today's baffling problems and demonstrate to them that Christ is ultimately the answer to their personal problems, national and international problems.

"WHO AM I?" Did I evolve gradually from some one-cell animal? Was my ancestry at one time swinging from a tree? Every man is God's pedigree. (Gen. 1:27; Acts 17:26) I am more than just body, but I consist of body and soul. I am more than animal; therefore I can't fulfill the animalistic desires of the body. (I Cor. 6:17) Girls, don't throw your bodies around, pre-marital sex is still wrong and sinful in God's sight. WHO AM I? I am somebody! Don't let anyone brainwash you and convince you that you are inferior intellectually, socially and morally, because you are black. You must be convinced that you don't have to be blond to be beautiful, to curse to show people that you are a man, or dress half-naked in order to be fashionable. YOU ARE A CHILD OF GOD AND YOU ARE SOMEBODY!
